

About Putnik

PUTNIK was established on October 16th, 1923 in Belgrade as the joint stock Company for transport of passengers and tourists in the Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenians (in Yugoslavia, since 1929), such and that date represents the beginning of agency business operations and organized tourism in Yugoslavia.

For more than eight decades main characteristics of PUTNIK are continuous development of its activities, constant capital increase and quality improvement of its services.

In May 2007 PUTNIK became a member of a great multinational company METROPOL GROUP from Russian Federation. Together with its new owner, PUTNIK continues with the same tradition within the frame of a new business environment.

After a two-year-long reconstruction, on November 30th, 2010 the PUTNIK's hotel was opened in New Belgrade. The name of such hotel is "Tulip Inn Putnik Belgrade" and it works within the international chain of hotels named "Golden Tulip Hospitality Group". About 7 mil EUR was invested in the above mentioned reconstruction. At this moment, the Hotel has seven floors and together with basement premises it has nine levels. There are 97 rooms in the Hotel, a restaurant (250 seats), contemporary conference room (for up to 150 persons), fitness and SPA centre.

Main business activity of the present PUTNIK is a hotel business activity successfully conducted in 4 hotels (Hotel CLUB A and hotel PUTNIK on Kopaonik, Tulip Inn Putnik Beograd in Belgrade and hotel ADMIRAL in Budva).

Impressing is the fact that PUTNIK survived all social, political and economic situations, various systems of reforms, ownership transformations and other changes this country was undergoing during the long period of 88 years and that it has still been running business successfully.
